

Librarians Making Connections

MichALL Annual Meeting

Friday, May 31, 2002

Library of Michigan, Lansing, MI

As Librarians in the 21st century, we are facing a myriad of issues that deal with more than traditional library issues. Join your colleagues for a day long conference presenting some information concerning these issues and their impact on our lives.

9:00 a.m. Registration

9:30 a.m. Welcome and introductions

9:45 a.m. Get Connected With The World

A presentation with an overview of Islam and Islamic Law. Given the changes in our view of the world since last September, to hear about a part of the world and a way of life few of us have ever thought about.

10:45 a.m. Get Connected With Our Profession

Michigan library school representatives along with a Michigan Library Association representative present us with a panel discussion on the future of librarianship.

12:00 p.m. Lunch

A buffet lunch with your choice of Honey Glazed Chicken and Pasta Primavera served with salad, roll, beverage and choice of dessert.

12:45 p.m. MichALL Business Meeting

(Attendees who are not MichALL members may wish to visit the Michigan Historical Museum during this time.)

1:30 p.m. Get Connected With Our Supervisors

How do we get feedback on the job that we are doing? What is the most effective way to evaluate our employees? Find out the current trends in reviewing employee performance and dealing with your supervisors.

2:30 p.m. Get Connected With Ourselves

Time is valuable. Both at work and home, there are always a myriad of items that need to be worked on. What is the best way to prioritize? How do you say no? Is there a way to relax and make sure you are on track for both your career and home life?

3:30 p.m. Wrap-up Session

3:45 p.m. Optional Tour of the Library of Michigan

Join the staff of the Library of Michigan in a behind the scenes look at the workings behind the system that supports our legislators, the general public, and librarians across the state. Please check the registration line in the form below.
